FACULTY'S EXPERIENCE SHARING

Neeraj Sathya

Hello there, I'm Neeraj Sathya from Thiruvambady. Taking part in IELTS exam wasn't something that I had in mind until mid 2021, but when the strings of life led me to entering into it, I had little to no doubt about where I would go for coaching.

Growing up in Thiruvambady, like all of my natives, I've also had the privilege of watching Success Garten grow into one of the major language training centres in the state. As someone who used to go there for Communicative English since its inception, watching students from various parts of the nation come to my village filled me with a sense of pride.

As fate would have it, I also got to be one of them, and my experience as a student, since day one, had been nothing less of an informative journey. With Chintu sir at the helm, a very capable faculty pool took us through the dos and don'ts of IELTS examination. Every session had a purpose and as I sat in those classes, the thought of how I would do as a trainer in Success Garten always used to pop up in my head.

So I didn't have to think twice about taking up the opportunity of being a faculty member when Chintu sir suggested it to me. With talented and knowledgeable colleagues by my side, I found myself in an atmosphere where I became better everyday as a language enthusiast and a trainer. From Chintu sir's ideas and motivation to interaction with students were testaments to how one can get better at English in Success Garten.

Amenities, infrastructure, introduction of new materials to building new friendships, Success Garten is second to none when it comes to preparing you for IELTS/PTE/OET examinations and a providing a sterling campus experience. I can't help but smile ear to ear when I recall my days there and be thankful everything the people there taught me.

A well laid out plan with proper execution can help you crack any test you want. Success Garten offers it. You don't just learn words and tenses, but develop the qualities of perseverance and discipline from there. This is where you experience freedom through language.

Know the book

THE LAST LEAF

It is a short story by O. Henry published in his 1907 collection The Trimmed Lamp and Other Stories. The story first appeared on October 15, 1905, in the New York World.

The story is set in Greenwich Village during a pneumonia epidemic. It tells the story of an old artist who saves the life of a young neighbouring artist, dying of pneumonia, by giving her the will to live. Through her window she can see an old ivy creeper (growing on a nearby wall), gradually shedding its leaves as autumn turns into winter, and she has taken the thought into her head that she will die when the last leaf falls. The leaves fall day by day, but the last lone leaf stays on for several days. The ill woman's health quickly recovers. At the story's end, we learn that the old artist, who always wanted to produce a masterpiece painting but had never had any success, spent considerable time painting with great realism a leaf on the wall for the whole night. Furthermore, the old artist himself dies of pneumonia contracted while being out in the wet and cold.

The scene of the story of "The Last Leaf" is the Greenwich artist colony in New York City. Over the past century, it has developed from a poor literati settlement to a world-famous art center and tourist attraction.

Goodbye to you, my trusted friend
But we've known each other since
we were nine or ten
Together, we've climbed hills and trees
Learned of love and ABC's
Skinned our hearts and skinned our knees
Goodbye, my friend, it's hard to die
When all the birds are singing in the sky
Now that spring is in the air
Pretty girls are everywhere
Think of me and I'll be there
We had joy, we had fun,
we had seasons in the sun
But the hills that we climbed were just seasons out of time
Goodbye, papa, please pray for me
I was the black sheep of the family
You tried to teach me right from wrong
Too much wine and too much song
Wonder how I got along
Goodbye, papa, it's hard to die
When all the birds are singing in the sky

Now that the spring is in the air
Little children everywhere
When you see them, I'll be there
We had joy, we had fun,
we had seasons in the sun
But the wine and the song
like the seasons have all gone
We had joy, we had fun,
we had seasons in the sun
But the wine and the song like the seasons have all gone
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Goodbye, Michelle, my little one
You gave me love and helped me find the sun
And every time that I was down
You would always come around
And get my feet back on the ground
Goodbye, Michelle, it's hard to die
When all the birds are singing in the sky
Now that the spring is in the air
With the flowers everywhere
I wish that we could both be there

Rudolf Christoph Eucken

was the Nobel prize laureate in 1908 in literature. It was awarded to him in recognition of his earnest search for truth, his penetrating power of thought, his wide range of vision, and the warmth and strength in presentation with which in his numerous works he has vindicated and developed an idealistic philosophy of life.

Work : Rudolf Eucken cantered his philosophy on the human experience. He maintained that man is the meeting place of nature and spirit and that it is man's duty to overcome his nonspiritual nature by actively striving after the spiritual life. ## Classic movies in English

LIFE IS BEAUTIFUL

'Life Is Beautiful' is a 1997 Italian comedy-drama film directed by and starring Roberto Benigni, who co-wrote the film with Vincenzo Cerami. Benigni plays Guido Orfice, a Jewish Italian bookshop owner, who employs his imagination to shield his son from the horrors of internment in a Nazi concentration camp. The film was partially inspired by the book In the End, I Beat Hitler by Rubino Romeo Salmonì and by Benigni's father, who spent two years in the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp during World War II.

The film was an overwhelming critical and commercial success. It received widespread acclaim, with critics praising its story, performances and direction, and the union of drama and comedy, despite some criticisms of using the subject matter for comedic purposes.

The movie won the Grand Prix at the 1998 Cannes Film Festival, nine David di Donatello Awards (including Best Film), five Nastrod'Argento Awards in Italy, two European Film Awards, and three Academy Awards, including Best Foreign Language Film and Best Actor for Benigni, the first for a male non-English performance.

Dr Sminto Augustine

The best place for your English language training to score high in international English language tests. Kudos to Chintu sir and team for their love and enthusiasm towards the language. Chintu sir! One of the best teachers I have ever come across. The one who sails through the deep ocean of English language, a strong leader for the team, a great mentor for the students and a wonderful person to interact with!

Among the numerous IELTS coaching centres mushrooming in the city, Success Garten is one of its unique kind. The place would not just be for exam prep but for one's overall personality development, instilling great values and habits along with top notch English classes. The faculty members are really dedicated, friendly and approachable. Anybody wishing to learn English and preparing for their international English tests should drop by this institute and I'm sure you'll be amazed by the state-of-the-art facilities of this serene campus. The ambience is incredible with English at every nook and cranny, one falls really in love with the world of English! One can't just call it a coaching centre rather it's a great campus in itself.

I am lucky that I could get a chance to spend over 3 months with them for my IELTS preparation and it was an amazing experience that I am very grateful for. I'm overwhelmed to share that I could score an overall 8.5 band with individual scores above 7.5. A normal day at Success Garten kicks off with leading English dailies where Chintu sir analyses the headlines to grab vocabs and usages. This not only helps to hone your language skills but also to stay updated with the current affairs. The regular classes from 10am to 4pm make the students be in an atmosphere of English all day long. The special care they give to make us better English writers is commendable. The advanced writing sessions helped a lot to fine tune my essay writing styles. Also the one-on-one speaking sessions are pivotal in overcoming the intricacies in expressing ourselves and boosting our confidence to speak in English. The faculty members show adorable level of dedication to constantly train and evaluate the students. Along with the non-teaching staff who are very caring and supportive, the campus makes one feel at home! Thanking Chintu sir and team once again.

CONVERSATIONAL PRACTICE

*Revealing the characters
Backu & Yomol*

Dear language lovers, as we know, our language ambassadors Yomol and Backu are engaging in a conversation. The following extract is a piece of communication between them. What you are supposed to do is to replace them with your family members/ beloved people and speak aloud the respective roles.

*Yomol : Hey buddy, how was your 2023?
Backu : It was a year of mixed effects!
Yomol : Naturally! Our life is full of different emotions.
Backu : You seem to be philosophical today.
Yomol : There you are!
Okay, what's your favourite word of 2023?
Backu : You are really putting me in trouble.
As you know, I love every word in English language!
Yomol : It is really promising!*

*Backu : Anyway, 'herald' is my favourite word of 2023. I saw it as part of a news item!
Yomol : Wow, it is really magical! Could you tell me its meaning?
Backu : With pleasure, it's a verb; by this word, we can mention that something good is going to happen.
By the bye, what's your plan in 2024?
Yomol : 20-24 is my favourite year! I have a lot of plans to be accomplished.
Backu : I wish you all the best in 2024!
Yomol : Thank you, same to you!*

LANGUAGE ACTIVITIES

Great Expressions using 'OXYMORONS'

When contradictory words come together in a usage, it is called an oxymoron which is a figure of speech. In speech, they can lend a sense of humour, irony, or sarcasm.

See the following example: 'A laconic politician, oh, it is an oxymoron!'

Here, laconic politician is an oxymoron. Politicians are known for their gift of the gab. So, if a politician does not speak much, it is a surprise.

The origin of the word 'oxymoron' tells us that the very word itself is oxymoronic. The word is derived from two ancient Greek words: oxys, which means "sharp," and moronos, which means "dull" or "stupid."

Just feel how the great poet William Shakespeare sprinkled oxymorons in Romeo and Juliet, Act 1, Scene 1. Can you find out some of them?

- O brawling love! O loving hate!*
- O anything of nothing first create!*
- O heavy lightness, serious vanity!*
- Misshapen chaos of well-seeming forms!*
- Feather of lead,*
- bright smoke, cold fire, sick health!*
- Still-waking sleep, that is not what it is!*
- This love feel I, that feel no love in this.*

15 popular oxymorons have been listed, enjoy them!

- (1) beggarly riches (2) brisk vacancy (3) clearly misunderstood (4) cruel kindness
- (5) deceptively honest (6) extinct life (7) genuine imitation (8) joyful sadness
- (9) lascivious grace (10) melancholy merriment (11) Open secret (12) Only choice
- (13) Original copy (14) student teacher (15) seriously funny

SOUND FAMILIARISATION

1. glacier: /'glæ.s.i.ər/; /'gleɪ.ʃə/ -glay•shee•uhz
2. détente: /deɪ'tɒnt/ - day•tawnt
3. plateau: /'plæt.əʊ/ - pla•toh
4. moustache: /mə'stɑːʃ/; /'mʌs.tæʃ/ - muh•staash

Laughing Moments

An MIT linguistics professor was lecturing his class the other day. "In English," he said, "a double negative forms a positive. However, in some languages, such as Russian, a double negative remains a negative. But there isn't a single language, not one, in which a double positive can express a negative." A voice from the back of the room said, "Yeah, right."
