FACULTY'S EXPERIENCE SHARING

Anwin Joseph Rajesh

My journey with Success Garten started with the very foundation programme of SG called 'Garten Kids'. I could proudly say that this institute in my home town was the only one and is still the only language school that is set up on the building blocks of grammar and phonetics.

Later, when the very thought of flying abroad started pestering me, I didn't need any other second thought. I was confident to choose Success Garten as my IELTS institute. As usual SG never disappointed me. I was presented with a well-planned schedule, pre set timetable and a refined academic curriculum. This high-level precision training helped me score L8 R7.5 S7.5 W7 which was more than enough for my further processes.

I was little confused when Mr Chintu sir asked me if I would like to join his team as it was a dream come true moment for a 17-year-old.

Being with the efficient team of faculty members, I came to know how a Success Garten product was created. Whether it be a practice module or a faculty member, neither of them will reach a student without being mentored and approved by the director. A perfect professional and technical approach for a market leader.

Having completed a rigorous faculty training, I was able to host a few special programs along with the regular one-month training module. Hosting PROWESS, TRAILBLAZERS (IELTS speaking specials) and assisting in ABUNDANCE (task 2 writing) and EXPRESSIONS (IELTS and OET open talk) took me through the real struggles happening behind the curtains before being delivered to the students. Each material is designed by the director such that none repeated and each one had something special for the student to learn from. No day started without a motivational interactive session by the director who arrives at his office before anyone could reach the campus.

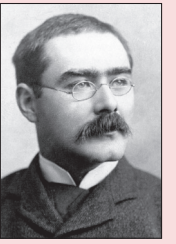

A break from the covid protocols opened a window to restart the Garten kids, the very program that took me to the world of real English. But this time I was lucky enough to host the session for seniors. I still remember Chintu sir say as we were drafted the sessions, "the students must never feel the burden of learning. They must enjoy every second." I was baffled by the care he took to an annually held a month-long program in presenting it in the finest way possible. This care should be the reason why the program had to be relaunched the same year the next month due to popular demand.

Every minute at Success Garten equipped me to face the challenges that the world ahead put forward and it is this power that I gained as a student and as a faculty member that is driving me ahead. Success Garten is a paradise and lucky are those who are Success Gartians. From the very front office staff that greets you at your first visit to the director who marks your mock test paper at your last day at the institute, everyone just cares about your "FREEDOM THROUGH LANGUAGE". Missing the Success Garten vibes....

Wishing you all the best!

Introducing the Nobel laureates in English literature -1907

The Nobel Prize in Literature 1907 was awarded to Rudyard Kipling 'in consideration of the power of observation, originality of imagination, virility of ideas and remarkable talent for narration which characterize the creations of this world-famous author.' He is the first English-language writer to receive the prize, and being aged 41, is its youngest recipient to date. The Swedish Academy, in awarding the Nobel Prize in Literature this year to Rudyard Kipling, desires to pay a tribute of homage to the literature of England, so rich in manifold glories, and to the greatest genius in the realm of narrative that that country has produced in that period.

Kipling's works of fiction include the Jungle Book duology (The Jungle Book, 1894; The Second Jungle Book, 1895), Kim (1901), the Just So Stories (1902) and many short stories, including "The Man Who Would Be King" (1888). His poems include "Mandalay" (1890), "Gunga Din" (1890), "The Gods of the Copybook Headings" (1919), "The White Man's Burden" (1899), and "If—" (1910). He is seen as an innovator in the art of the short story.

In 2010, the International Astronomical Union approved the naming of a crater on the planet Mercury after Kipling – one of ten newly discovered impact craters observed by the MESSENGER spacecraft in 2008–2009. In 2012, an extinct species of crocodile, Goniopholis kiplingi, was named in his honour "in recognition for his enthusiasm for natural sciences." His children's stories remain popular and his Jungle Books made into several films courtesy: wikipedia

THE COUNT OF MONTE CRISTO

Author : Alexandre Dumas

The story takes place in France, Italy, and islands in the Mediterranean during the historical events of 1815–1839: the era of the Bourbon Restoration through the reign of Louis-Philippe of France. It begins on the day that Napoleon left his first island of exile, Elba, beginning the Hundred Days period when Napoleon returned to power. The historical setting is a fundamental element of the book, an adventure story centrally concerned with themes of hope, justice, vengeance, mercy, and forgiveness. Before he can marry his fiancée Mercédès, Edmond Dantès, a French nineteen-year-old first mate of the Pharaon, is falsely accused of treason, arrested, and imprisoned without trial in the Château d'If, a grim island fortress off Marseille. A fellow prisoner, Abbé Faria, correctly deduces that romantic rival Fernand Mondego, envious crewmate Danglars, and double-dealing magistrate De Villefort are responsible. Over the course of their long imprisonment, Faria educates Dantès and tells him of a cache of treasure he found. After Faria dies, Dantès escapes and finds the treasure. As the powerful and mysterious Count of Monte Cristo, he enters the fashionable Parisian world of the 1830s to avenge himself.

The book is considered a literary classic today. According to Lucy Sante, "The Count of Monte Cristo has become a fixture of Western civilization's literature."

GREAT MUSIC ALBUMS & SONG LYRICS

Sir Elton John is a British singer, pianist and composer. Acclaimed by critics and musicians, particularly for his work during the 1970s and for his lasting impact on the music industry, his music and showmanship have had a significant impact on popular music. His song writing partnership with lyricist Bernie Taupin is one of the most successful in history.

Sacrifice
It's a human sign
When things go wrong
When the scent of her lingers
And temptation's strong
Into the boundary
Of each married man
Sweet deceit comes calling
And negativity lands
Cold cold heart
Hard done by you
Some things look better, baby
Just passing through
And it's no sacrifice
Just a simple word
It's two hearts living
In two separate worlds
But it's no sacrifice

No sacrifice
It's no sacrifice at all
Mutual misunderstanding
After the fact
Sensitivity builds a prison
In the final act
We lose direction
No stone unturned
No tears to damn you
When jealousy burns
Cold, cold heart
Hard done by you
Some things look better, baby
Just passin' through
And it's no sacrifice
Just a simple word
It's two hearts livin'
In two separate worlds

But, it's no sacrifice
No sacrifice
It's no sacrifice, at all
Cold, cold heart
Hard done by you
Some things look better, baby
Just passin' through
And it's no sacrifice
Just a simple word
It's two hearts livin'
In two separate worlds
But, it's no sacrifice
No sacrifice
It's no sacrifice, at all
No sacrifice, at all
No sacrifice, at all
No sacrifice, at all
No sacrifice, at all

Classic movies in English

The Poseidon Adventure is a 1972 American survival disaster film directed by Ronald Neame, produced by Irwin Allen, and based on Paul Gallico's 1969 novel of the same name. It has an ensemble cast including five Oscar winners: Gene Hackman, Ernest Borgnine, Jack Albertson, Shelley Winters, and Red Buttons.

The plot centers on the fictional SS Poseidon, an aging luxury liner on her final voyage from New York City to Athens, before it is scrapped. On New Year's Day, it is overturned by a tsunami. Passengers and crew are trapped inside, and a preacher attempts to lead a small group of survivors to safety.

The film is in the vein of other all-star disaster films of the early through mid-1970s, such as Airport (1970), Earthquake (1974), and The Towering Inferno (1974). It was released in December 1972 and was the highest-grossing film of 1973, earning over $125 million worldwide. It was nominated for eight Academy Awards, and went on to win two Oscars, a Golden Globe Award, a British Academy Film Award, and a Motion Picture Sound Editors Award.

STUDENT'S EXPERIENCE SHARING

SUCCESS STORIES

Ms Megha Nambiar

I am Megha Nambiar, a proud alumni of Success Garten (2018 JAN Batch) here to share how this blessed institution have been enlightening my life up as a whole. First off, let me thank Mr. Chintu M. Raju, for the finest mentoring of the beautiful language English and its applications in varied arena, in a unique method. I am forever indebted for the magnificent learning experience you have given! I never had to go for a second choice while selecting the training institute other than Success Garten, since my older sister was also an alumni (APRIL 2013) of the very same institute, who inspired me to experience the remarkable teaching method of Chintu sir, that helped her to crack her dream score of individual

7. I should definitely highlight the benefits I gained from the daily essay/letter submissions and timely corrections given by Chintu Sir in an individual manner, as he pointed out me the areas where improvements were needed. At the same time, I made use of all other sessions given in the institute that really helped me to acclimatize with IELTS Real Examination and the related nervousness. Although I was eluding from my required band score in initial attempts, my consistent writing score of 7.5 band kept fueled me to not give up, at the top of it all, I can't thank enough to Chintu Sir for his continued motivation during those days, and not losing hope on me, in fact, that was the sole forwarding force. Finally, the hard work did pay off and I hit a band score of 8,9,7,7 by solely following the guidance given by the institute. I would also love to add that IELTS is not merely a gateway to our dream country as many of us think initially, but a lifelong weapon for career enhancement and progression. During exam preparations, I used to doubt the logic of conducting such a sophisticated exam pattern just to prove our proficiency in language, as an answer to my above thought, when I made every job applications here in the UK, particularly in government sectors, I was asked to provide a personal statement where I was expected to properly organize the content, and the employers keenly evaluate our ability to use the language grammatically with proper punctuations along with our work experience and skills. In addition, to get shortlisted for an interview a Verbal reasoning test is also most common, and it is exactly as same as IELTS Reading passage. If the applied job responsibilities include customer service, regardless of any industry, writing a response letter to a customer by addressing all the queries raised by him/her, is also an interview task in prominence, which is also as same as IELTS writing in which we taught to carefully cover all the areas of a question while answering. My IELTS training at success Garten absolutely helped me to cross the hurdles of job interviews, and I could successfully on-boarded for a right job here. In short, I realize the fact that IELTS is not just an examination but a lifetime skill to be refreshed and retained.

I would like to extent my gratitude to Chintu Sir, and all the staff members of Success Garten to help me crack IELTS, and uplifting my language proficiency with endless enthusiasm over it!! I wish all the success to the team Success Garten!

How can I improve my English language?

Language improvement is not a nine day wonder especially when it comes to a foreign language. Only by constant practice, any language can be mastered. There is no doubt that despite having enough vocabulary, people often fumble to communicate. This happens due to the absence of not only right listening practices but also emotional attachment to each pattern. Sufficient blood supply must be supplied to each conversation as English is a powerful language.

Only by putting efforts, our speaking faculties will be sharpened. The most important two exercises to improve speaking skills are getting exposed to the right sounds of words and conversational practice. So, go through the following sessions carefully as a language enthusiast and get adapted to the speaking techniques.

CONVERSATIONAL PRACTICE

Revealing the characters : Backu & Yomol

Dear language lover, as we know, our language ambassadors Yomol and Backu are engaging in a conversation. The following extract is a piece of communication between them. What you are supposed to do is to replace them with your family members/ beloved people and speak aloud the respective roles.

Yomol : Hi dear, what's up?

Backu : There are a lot of events happening across the world!

Yomol : Sounds interesting!

Backu : World cup cricket has been active!

Yomol : Yes! Are you a cricket lover?

Backu : Of course! I am a die-hard fan of cricket.

Yomol : That's fantastic! Is there any negative news?

Backu : West Asia is boiling!

Yomol : Very unfortunate! It's high time we restored peace there!

Backu : There you are! There must be genuine initiatives to solve the present crisis.

Yomol : Absolutely yes!

Laughing Moments

A policeman watched a woman trying to maneuver her car out of a parking space. She banged into the car ahead, then into the bike behind and finally, when pulling out into the street, crashed into a passing auto. This was too much for the cop. He walked over to her and said. "Lady, let me see your driving licence."

She gave him a friendly smile and replied, "Don't be silly officer, who would give me a licence?"
